1. Are You there? Lord, hear my plea. In the knowledge that You are always there for me. You, Lord, times of trouble, Lord, in times of deep distress— You, Lord, — in— times of deep distress — You, Lord, are there. So my thoughts now dwell on You. O Lord. Hear my pain. Memories plague my soul:

2. Yet my hope is based on this. In the knowledge that You are always there for me. You, Lord, thoughts of better days— of times so long ago— when You were there. So my thoughts now dwell on You.

3. Hear me, Lord. I pray to Thee— Hear my cry for help as I lift my hands to Thee. Be there, in the knowledge that You are always there for me. You, Lord, thoughts of better days— of times so long ago— when You were there. So my thoughts now dwell on You.

Copyright © 1998 by Stephen Pearson  All Rights Reserved http://www.psalministry.com are there. Through Your great love, our lives are re-are there. Will You re-turn, Your love un-to me? Or am I now damned to hell’s a-go-ny? stored. What god is as great, as great as You,

Lord!

there!